Science and Music-(Rescheduled Date)

Thursday, March 18th at 7:00pm.

You have probably heard about the connection between science and music, but can you actually hear them? When do musicians use science? In this stimulating multimedia performance, Symphony Orchestra cellist Yvonne Caruthers explores scientific and musical concepts in acoustics, medicine, computer science and psychology.

Abigail Trafford Book Signing and Lecture

Wednesday, April 7th at 6:00.

Kids grown? Mortgage paid? Retirement looming? What next? What do I do with the rest of my life? Abigail Trafford will discuss and sign her book "Making the Most of the Bonus Decades After 50" For many the obstacles are real: retirement, health problems, relationship issues and the prejudice of ageism. Also real are the unprecedented opportunities for new purpose and more meaningful life. Ms. Trafford will share personal stories with expert opinions and the latest research on adult development. The stories offer men and women a better understanding of the challenges they face at this stage and the reassurance that they are not alone as they rewrite the script of aging in America.

Complimentary book for the first fifteen individuals who call to reserve a spot and attend!

Betty Wells Art Auction Benefiting the Women's Outreach Campaign

Friday, April 30th 6:00pm.

For more than two decades, Betty Wells was "America's storyteller." As sketch artist for NBC News from 1974-1995, she covered the U.S. Supreme Court, historic courtroom trials, and Congressional events where cameras were not allowed. From her realistic drawings of the oral arguments and decision days at the nation's highest court, to notable courtroom trials (Watergate, Oliver North, John Hinckley, and more) to the workings of Congress and its committees, Ms. Wells was an eye-witness capturing the proceedings for posterity with beautiful, life-like sketches which would be – when all is said and done – the only historic visual record of the event. Betty has graciously agreed to support the Alzheimer's Association/National Capital Area Chapter in its newly launched Women's Outreach campaign. Betty will be selling a limited selection of her sketches, with a percentage of the proceeds to benefit the campaign. Don't miss this exclusive event!
